v.

McKesson Corp., a Delaware
corporation,

Counterdefendant.

On June 4, 2008, plaintiff filed its Motion for Summary Judgment (“Motion”) asking the Court, inter alia, to enter judgment on its claim for breach of contract in favor of McKesson and against Familymeds Group.

In support of its Motion, plaintiff attached those excerpts of the subject contracts that plaintiff deemed relevant to resolution of its Motion. Plaintiff did

1 not attach complete copies of the contracts at issue because, in plaintiff's view, at 2 least some of the terms of the contracts are confidential.

3 If plaintiff seeks to have the Court consider the merits of its Motion, plaintiff
4 MUST FILE UNDER SEAL complete copies of all contracts that are referenced in 5 plaintiff's Motion.

6 By Wednesday, July 23, 2008, at 2:00 p.m., plaintiff must file under seal
7 and deliver to chambers complete copies of all contracts referenced in plaintiff's
8 Motion. If plaintiff opts not to file complete copies of the subject contracts with 9 the Court the Court will deem plaintiff's Motion withdrawn and will vacate the 10 hearing scheduled for August 20, 2008.

11 IT IS SO ORDERED.

12 Dated: July 18, 2008
